

Lafayette in America

in 1824 and 1825

By Auguste Levasseur, General Lafayette's Private Secretary during His Trip
Translated and with an Introduction by Alan R. Hoffman
628 pages, 12 black-and-white illustrations and a fold-out route map

Ordering For Advance Copies – Retail

Title: Lafayette in America
Binding: Hardcover with Jacket

Price: $30 plus $5 shipping
10 or more copies: $24 each

Individuals can order by email, mail, fax, telephone (in North America). Payment is by check.

Mail orders and payments to:

Alan R Hoffman
Lafayette in America
Order Department
45 Hardy Road
Londonderry, NH 03053, USA By email or phone:

E-mail inquiries/orders:
arhoffman@lynchbrewer.com

Telephone: 617-951-1817
FAX: 617-951-0811

Quantity: _____ SHIP: USPS: $5, 1-2 copies. Add $2/copy for 3-9 copies.
$15, 10 copies. Inquire for larger multiples.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS _____

BUYER'S PHONE(s) _____

BUYER'S EMAIL(s) _____

Bill to:

Please complete page 2 (over)

Ordering For Advance Copies - Retail

PAGE 2

Ship to:

P.O. # _____ DATE _____

Thank you for your order.

www.LafayetteInAmerica.com (under construction)

“Alan R. Hoffman has done a masterful job of reacquainting us with a classic text that deserves wider recognition. Auguste Levasseur’s account of Lafayette’s visit to America in 1824-1825 is a ringside seat at one of the great events in American social and cultural history. Through this fine new English translation, we are able to come along as Lafayette travels to all twenty-four states in the Union, accepts the adulation of a nation, and has adventures aplenty, including a harrowing shipwreck. What makes the account all the more valuable as a commentary on America is that it reveals how very fitting was Lafayette’s sobriquet ‘The Nation’s Guest’, as he insisted on spending time not just with the country’s elite, but also with ordinary citizens, African Americans, and American Indians.”

Diane Windham Shaw
Special Collections Librarian
Lafayette College